ITALY WILL FORM NATIONAL CABINET

Salandra's Resignation Not Ex- Russians Pursue Fleeing Armies, pected to Affect Conduct of the War.

ROME, June 12.-King Emanuel held conference today with the leaders of the various parties, regarding the formation of a new cabinet. Following the resignation of his cabinet, tendered yesterday by Premier Salandra to King Victor Emmanuel, and made necessary by the refusal of the Chamber of Deputies to vote confidence in his government or to approve the budget of the interior ninistry, control of which he had assumed, interest here centers upon the reorganization of the ministry. May Reinstate Salandra. Some political leaders believe that Salandra will be urged to reorganize the ministry. Others think a man not connected with the party bitterness

It has been suggested that Baron Sommino be asked to form a new cabinet, although some prominent politicians think that the adverse vote in the chamber of deputies affected him as well as Premier Salandra. Others mentioned as possibilities ere Tommaso Tittoni. Italian ambassador to France, and several leaders in Parliament.

All parties agree that the new cabinet must have a national character One proposition is that it include all leading statesmen with a view to uniting in the subreme struggle all po-litical factions except the Intransigeant Socialists, forty of whom oppose war on principle. From all sides a rapid so-lution of the crisis is urged owing to the gravity of the moment. Although the cabinet situation since the Austrian advance on May 14 had been somewhat precarious, nobody expected the sudden adverse vote in the chamber.

MASON SAYS ALLIES SHOULD STRIKE NOW

Great Britain and France Have Great Chance for Offensive, He Asserts.

By J. W. T. MASON.

NEW YORK, June 12 .- The astonishsoutheastern front brings the time for the allies' western offensive to the test. Not since the war began have the allies been able to deliver simultaneous assaults upon all the Teutonic lines.

The allies have thus consistently played Germany's game by permitting the central powers to concentrate their forces against a single enemy at a time—which was the reason why Fred-erick the Great won the Seven Years' War against continental Europe. If the allies now again hold back in

But if it becomes evident that the Slava have pienty of supplies for a sustained offensive, then it would be a gigantic blunder for Russia's western allies to remain idle in their trenches unless the governments of France and Great Britain have concluded that the German defenses cannot be overcome. Reports from Rome today announce that the Italians have begun a counter-offensive along the Tientino front. This is an added reason why France and Great Britain should begin to count the days for their united effort to drive the Germans back to their fronter.

The Balkan offensive of the allies might well wait, however, until the Russians have penetrated far into Bukovina and thus brought influence to bear on Roumania to join the allies.

Such a development would place Buiggria in danger of being crushed by an garia in danger of being crushed by an attack from two directions and might cause Sofia to agree to a separate peace. But, long delay in the west at this time will probably be fatal to the military ambitions of the allies. If the allies have a sincere hope of being able to subdue Germany with their armies, any moment may see the beginning of the western offensive which now has been nearly two years in preparation.

22,000 AMERICANS IN LATEST WHO'S WHO

Ninth Issue of Biographical Reference Work Just Out.

Who's Who in America for the years 1916-1917 has just come from the press. This is the ninth biennial issue of this well-known standard biographical reference book.

Starting away back in 1899 with 800 pages, the book now contains over 3,00 pages. The first edition, published eight-een years ago, contained 8,000 biographi-cal sketches. This new edition contains nearly 22,000 such sketches—a truly wonderful compendium of American dio-graphy; and a marvel of comprehensive-graphy; and a marvel of comprehensiveness and perfection.

Here in a single volume of handy, usable size, and in the most convenient form for quick reference, is a brief record of the career of practically every man and woman in the country who has accomplished any noteworthy achievement or become prominent enough in any worthy way to be the subject of exceptional or general interest.

The book was founded in 1899 by Albert Nelson Marquis and has been under his editorial management all these years, growing steadily in reputation for accuracy and usefulness, and in popularity. Its fame has become worldpopularity. Its fame has become work wide, and it is everywhere regarded as the standard biographical reference book of this country.

It is indispensable in public and privvate libraries, in newspaper offices, to all literary workers, and in fart to every person who reads and thinks or make any attempt to keep abreast of the time.

AUSTRIANS ROUTED

Take Dubino and Overrun Bukowina.

Russian Offensive Great Event of War

The Russian offensive movement in Volhynia and Galicia has developed into what is probably the major operation of the war. Since the present offensive was started a week ago the Russians have taken about 108,000 prisoners. On Saturday alone 409 officers and 35,000 men were captured. In Bukowina the Austro-Hungarians have been overwhelmed and 18,000 prisoners taken.

Concerning the Bukowina fighting the Austrians admit the withdrawal of their forces before "a greatly superior en-

The capture of such enormous war materials prepared by the enemy for various operations affords proof of how opportune was our coup against the enemy.

opportune was our coup against the cnemy:
During yesterday's fighting we took as prisoners 1 general, 400 officers, and 35,109 soldiers. We also captured 29 guns, 12 machine guns, and I bomb throwers. This makes the total trophles in the recent operations 1 general, 1,649 officers, and more than 106,600 soldiers and 124 guns, 150 machine guns, and 38 bomb throwers.

Among the various episodes may be noted the plucky struggle of our young formation near Rojitchie, on Styr near Lutsk. Here the Germans attempted to render assistance to the Austrians, but by our infantry attack, delivered under cover of heavy artillery, they were dislodged from the town, losing over 2,000 prisoners, two guns, and some machine guns. Our troops pursued the retreating Germans.

A part of the Russians occupied the region of the Village of Damidvoka, on the Myinoff-Berestetchno road, forcing the enemy at his Myinoff point of support to surrender. Besides disloding the enemy from his principal position north of Boutchatche, we made many prisoners there, including the staff of an Austrian battalion, and also took a great quantity of arms.

If the allies now again hold back in the west and allow Germany and Austro-Hungary to meet the new Siavonic offensive unhampered, there can be no expectation of a great military victory against the two Kaisers.

The persistence of Russia's new successes must come as a grateful surprise to Great Britain and France.

Nevertheless, it might be profitable for the western powers to wait for a brief interval to determine whether the Russians have shot away all their ammunition in the first days of their advance. today.

An artillery struggle of the utmost violence is in progress on the Souvilles and Tanness sectors. West of Solssons the French artii-

lery destroyed the German works, one shell causing an explosion within the Jerman lines, apparently having struck an ammunition depot.

The Germans turned to the west bank of the Meuse earlier, and delivered two strong attacks on the French positions on Hill 304, and one east of the hill. These attacks were completely checked, the Paris account says. East of the Meuse the shelling goes on.

The official communication by the French war office reads:

"On the front north of Verdun no infantry action was reported during the course of the day. Our artillery actively countershelled the German batteries which bombarded, particularly in the region south of the Thjaumont farm and west of Fort de Vaux.

"The day was calm on the rest of the front except in Champagne, where the artillery action took on a character of great intensity in the sector of Tahure."

Italian Armies Advance On Whole Trentino Front

ROME, June 12.-The Italian armies oday took the offensive all along the Trentino front, making general advances.

This movement, it is understood, is to be a powerful attack, timed simultaneously with the Russian offensive and the reported withdrawal of Austrian troops from the Trentino.

DIAMOND JUBILEE OF

Cardinal Farley Takes Part in Celebration of College's 75th Anniversary.

NEW YORK, June 12.-The diamond jubilee of Fordham University—the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of this Catholic institution o learning-will be celebrated elaborately during the week beginning today.

Founded by Bishop Hughes in 1841,

Hughes led the opposition to the "Know Nothings."

Originally known as St. John's College, it was formally opened by Bishop Hughes in June. 1841. The Rev. John McCloskey, who later became the first American Cardinal, was the first president, and associated with him were seveu. I men who attained distinction.

In 1846 Bishop Hughes learned that a Jesuit college in Kentucky was unable to make any headway. Wishing to place his college in the hands of some regular order devoted to educational work, Bishop Hughes wrote a letter to Kentucky, pointing out that New York was thickly populated and would give the Jesuits larger opportunities than the South afforded. As a result, the priests came to New York and were placed in charge of Fordham College, which has remained under the direction of the Jesuit fathers ever since.

The celebration will be participated in by church dignitaries from all parts of the country, and by distinguished men of all walks of life and all religions. Although primarily a Catholic college, Fordham is not sectarian and many distinguished men of other religions have been graduated there.

In connection with the diamond juthere.

In connection with the diamond jubilee, the Fordham University Alumni Association is raising a fund of $75,000 intended still further to make known the merits of the place. Cardinal Fariey, himself a graduate, is chairman. The campaign will be in charge of Father Joseph A. Mulry, the new president. Before coming to Fordham only a year ago, Father Mulry had in Jersey City founded St. Peter's Club and built for it the largest Catholic club house in the country.

The names of the chairman of leading committees connected with the ing committees connected with the celebration follow: Morgan J. O'Brien, Arthur J. McAleenan, Henry Heide, jr., Gen. James R. O'Beirne, Charles W. Sinnott, Joseph B. Uniacke, Dr. Cornelius F. Orben.

WITH GERMAN SPIES

MAASTRICHT, June 12 .- Russia at its worst or Constantinople under Abdul Hamid never have been so overrun with spies as Brussels is at the present time. Consequently, if they have no genuine information to turn in to their superiors it is charged that they manufacture it. To be accused by them means arrest, and much difficulty at the best. It is more likely to mean prolonged imprisonment.

It may mean a firing squad.

Reign of Terror On.

A reign of terror has resulted. No body feels safe, even in the privacy of his own home. The people live in a constant state of nervous dread. A tap on the shoulder, prison, and perhaps death may come at any instant. In Erussels alone it is declared there are 1,500 spies. How busy they are is are 1.50 sples. How busy they are is proved by the extravagant style in which they live.

Whenever funds run short fresh victims must be found.

Women are numerous among the secret agents. They may be found all up and down the social scale, from the relative of General von Bissing, who took advantage of her position to keep an eye on the most fashionable functions in the most exclusive residences, down to the humblest seamstress or domestic servant.

There are officers' and professors' wives, who keep watch in middle class circles.

There are the demimondaines, who send in reports from the theaters, restaurants, and boulevards.

No One Escapes. There are men formerly prominent in business, of which now, practically, there is none, who use their former connections and acquaintance to keep the Jerman authorities posted concerning doings in financial and industrial circles
